

EXPLORING MALAYSIAN PORTUGUESE CUISINE

... the fruity olive oil, plump tomatoes, spices and freshest vegetables infused in delicious coconut curry sauce eaten with succulent debal prawns is a marriage of land and sea in one bite.

The Portuguese ruled Malacca in the Malay Peninsular from 1511 to 1641, and long after that, many local Malaccan Portuguese integrated into the Malaysian way of life while retaining their culinary culture. I travel each year with a group of foodies to a small province called Portuguese Settlement just 30 minutes' walk east from central Malacca town. One of my main highlights is enjoying the variety of seafood cooked in cast iron with succulent chili butter sauce and vegetables infused in the most delicate coconut curry with spices. You will learn sauté style of cooking, perfect curry making, and fundamental skills to enhance your everyday dishes. Explore the aromas and flavors of Malaysia Portuguese kitchen ... where each dish is divine!

DINNER MENU

Portuguese Debal Prawns in Garlic Chili Butter Sauce

A medley of organic vegetables, plump tomatoes and carrots infused in delicious coconut curry Kapitan

Portuguese Style Baked Fish with Sambal, Basil, Lime and Ginger over brown rice ...divine

Cream Corn Custard
Dessert & Wine

Chef's Christina Arokiasamy's Malaysian Kitchen - Travelling Places Through Your Dinner Plate
www.thespicemERCHANTSdaughter.com