
The Salmon Tandoori Experience

A Cooking Class & Dinner Invitation

With this cold weather looming over us, the beautiful salmon deserves something luxurious than a little lemon juice and a sprinkle of herbs. This cooking class will teach you how to use spices to transform salmon, salads, vegetables and lentils into incredible feasts that you can easily recreate at home on busy weeknights yet elegant enough to serve to guests. Plus, you will end the evening with a luscious mango panna cotta that is simply divine!
